

We have an anti-telemarketing law in Indiana that is great! Evenings have been very peaceful since it went into effect. Any Federal law that is created regarding telemarketing, etc. should not diminish or weaken the current Indiana law. We have our "do-not-call" lists on which great numbers of Indiana citizens have requested their names be included.

Do not weaken or supercede the Indiana law.

Mark A. Harper